

Prop Firm Account Management Guideline

1. Choose a Prop Firm

Select a prop firm of your choice, such as FTMO, Funded Trading Plus, Funded Trader, among others, to purchase a prop firm account.

2. Purchase and Submit Trading Logins

Purchase the prop firm account and provide the trading logins to SPV for account management. This will allow our experienced SPV trader to trade the account on your behalf.

3. Challenge and Verification

SPV trader will actively trade the account to pass the challenge and meet the verification requirements set forth by the prop firm. This ensures transparency and fairness in the allocation of profits.

4. Starter Package Management Fees

For the Starter package, you are required to pay an upfront management fee of 150 USD to initiate the account management process.

5. Profit Split Agreement

Once the account successfully passes the challenge and verification, SPV trader will continue to trade the account for the next one year. A profit split agreement will be in place, where SPV trader is entitled to 40% of the profit generated, with the remaining 60% debited to your account.

6. Risk Management

We prioritize risk management to protect your capital. Our experienced traders employ sound risk management strategies to minimize losses and maximize profits. We implement stop loss orders and closely monitor market conditions to mitigate risks associated with trading.

7. Duration

The managed account agreement is valid for one year from the date of successfully passing the challenge. At the end of the agreement period, you will have the option to continue the account management services based on mutually agreed terms.

8. Transparency and Reporting

We maintain transparency in our operations and provide regular performance reports to keep you informed about the progress of your managed account.

9. Client Support

Our dedicated support team is available to assist you throughout the account management process. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to our support team for prompt assistance.

By following these guidelines, you can take advantage of our prop firm account management service, allowing experienced SPV traders to trade your prop firm account and potentially generate profits.

This collaboration ensures that your investment is managed by professionals while adhering to the terms and conditions set by the prop firm.
